During the 20th century there was a vast increase in the variety of music that people had access to. Prior to the invention of mass market gramophone records and radio broadcasting, people mainly listened to music at live Classical music concerts or musical theatre shows, which were too expensive for many lower-income people; on early phonograph players; or by individuals performing music or singing songs on an amateur basis at home, using sheet music, which required the ability to sing, play, a
