THE "FREEDOM" "The Freedom: Shadows and Hallucinations in Occupied Iraq" is an account of the first 18 months of the occupation by well known journalist and writer Christian Parenti. The story is familiar now but has not lost the ability to shock. It is stunning to realise that the situation became even worse after the book was written.

**The Freedom Shadows and Hallucinations in Occupied Iraq**

"The Freedom: Shadows and Hallucinations in Occupied Iraq" is the cumulative result of journalist Christian Parenti's three trips to Iraq. He examines the occupation through the eyes of all involved parties--from the soldiers and marines who serve there to the Iraqis whose country has fallen into complete chaos.
